DESCRIPTION OF STANDARD ABSTRACT OF DRIVING RECORD

The standard abstract of a driving record provides all the information in DMV's records for a person who has a permit, license, non-driver ID, or a record created in NY used to record traffic violations or crashes. The abstract will not include information from when the person's record was created.

SANCTIONS (suspensions and revocations)

- Sanctions are displayed while they are open and an additional four years from the date they are cleared.
- Most alcohol-related sanctions will display for 5 years from the date they are cleared.

CRASHES

- Crashes will display for the remainder of the calendar year of the crash, plus 3 additional years.

CONVICTIONS

Vehicle Related

- Most convictions will display for the remainder of the calendar year of the conviction date, plus 3 additional years.
- Some convictions will display for 4 years from the date of conviction.
- Some convictions will display for 5 years from the date of conviction.
- Most alcohol and drug related convictions will display for 15 years from the date of conviction.
- Some serious convictions, such as vehicular assault, vehicular homicide, and negligent homicide will display permanently.

Non-vehicle related (vessels, snowmobiles, ATVs, e-bikes, e-scooters)

- Most convictions will display for the remainder of the calendar year of the conviction date, plus 3 additional years.
- Some alcohol and drug related convictions will display for 5 years from the date of conviction.
- Most alcohol and drug related convictions will display for 15 years from the date of conviction.

EXPLANATION OF SECTIONS DISPLAYED ON THE ABSTRACT

IDENTIFICATION INFORMATION

This information repeats at the top of each page of the abstract.

- Name: First, Middle, Last
- CID
- Date of Birth
- Height
- Sex
- Eye Color
- Veteran Status

TEMP VISITOR, MILITARY, ORGAN DONOR INFORMATION

- Temporary Visitor is defined as anyone who is not immigrating to or not permanently residing (living) in the United States. These visitors have US Department of Homeland Security (DHS) documentation that supports their legal status in this country.
- Military personnel, under New York State law, automatically have extended license privileges throughout active military service for up to 6 months after discharge or separation.
- Organ Donor is a person that has registered to be an organ donor and allows others to know the intentions of the person.

NON-COMMERCIAL STATUS, COMMERCIAL STATUS, 19-A STATUS, HAZMAT STATUS

Non-commercial Status

This shows the status of the individual's non-commercial driver license, permit or driving privilege in NYS.

Deceased:	Displayed if customer is marked deceased
Valid – Conditional:	Driving privilege given with restrictions, such as only driving to and from work
Valid – Restricted:	Driving privilege given with restrictions, such as only driving to and from work
Revoked:	Driving privilege is withdrawn for class of license shown
Suspended:	Driving privilege is temporarily withdrawn for class of license shown

Cancelled:	Driving privilege in all classes has been cancelled
Surrendered OOS:	Displayed if driver transfers out of New York state
Approved:	Driver is authorized to have driving privileges returned after revocation, but has not yet obtained a license or learner permit
Valid – Hardship:	Displayed if driver has been issued hardship privileges
Valid:	Full driving privileges are in effect for the class of license shown
Expired:	Driver has an expired NY license
Eligible:	Customer is eligible for license

Commercial Status

This shows the status of the individual's commercial driver license, permit or driving privilege in NYS.

Deceased:	Displayed if customer is marked deceased
CDL Revoked:	Displayed if all or CDL privileges are revoked
CDL Suspended:	Displayed if all or CDL privileges are suspended
Cancelled:	Driving privilege in all classes has been cancelled
Downgraded:	Driver is downgraded

Eligible:	Customer is eligible for a license

19-A Status

Sets strict safety standards for bus driver qualifications, requiring specialized medical exams, background checks, and biannual testing. It applies to motor carriers transporting passengers, including school buses, to ensure drivers are qualified and safe.

Hazmat Status

Hazmat status in New York State refers to an individual with a commercial driver license (CDL) that has passed all the legal background checks and training to transport safety-regulated materials—such as explosive, flammable, or toxic substances that pose risks during transport.

MAILING ADDRESS

A mailing address is the designated location for receiving correspondence, which may differ from a person's legal, physical, or residential address. This section shows the current mailing address the person filed with DMV.

DRIVER EDUCATION COURSE COMPLETION

This is a course designed to provide new drivers, particularly teenagers, with essential knowledge, skill, and safety habits needed to operate a vehicle responsibly.

* Successful completion allows a 17-year old to obtain a full class driver license, versus a junior driving license, granting them the same privileges as an 18-year-old.

ACTIVE CREDENTIALS

Active credentials are the current license and/or permit for an individual including class of document(s), the type of document(s), issuance date, expiration date, and the credential type.

There will be more than one credential type if the individual has a valid license in one class and a valid permit in a different class, and if the person has a valid non-commercial license while the commercial privilege is suspended or revoked.

License/ Permit Class:	A, B, C, D, E, DJ, M and MJ
Issue Type:	Original, Amended, Renewal
Issue Date:	Date the current license or permit was issued.

SUSPENSION & REVOCATION SUMMARY

This section shows two types of suspensions and revocations: non-scofflaws and scofflaws. Non-scofflaws and scofflaws are listed separately and in order of effective date from the newest to the oldest. For out-of-state courts, the court's address and phone number are shown as provided by the issuing jurisdiction.

This is a summary of the total open non-scofflaws and scofflaws an individual currently has.

- Total Open
- Open Non-Scofflaws
- Open Scofflaws

Non-Scofflaws

In NYS non-scofflaw suspensions are imposed by the DMV for reasons other than failing to pay fines or appear in court. These include excessive points, insurance lapses, alcohol/drug convictions, unpaid taxes, medical conditions, or serious traffic violations that often have a fixed duration. The following fields may appear:

Effect:	Suspension, Revocation, Disqualified, Cancelled
Effective:	Date the sanction period begins
Order Number:	Sanction order number
Reason:	Reason for the sanction – DMV code description
Closed:	Date the sanction was cleared
Extent:	License or permit class affected: All, Non-CDL, CDL
Period:	Length of the sanction
Verdict ID:	ID of conviction that created the sanction; ticket number, docket number, case number, etc.
Points:	Number of points associated to non-scoff (only applicable to chemical test refusals)
Civil Penalty:	Civil penalty that is owed or paid if applicable
Termination Fee:	Sanction termination fee that is owed or paid if applicable

Scofflaws

In NYS scofflaw suspensions are indefinite driver license sanctions triggered when a driver fails to answer, appear, or pay fines for traffic tickets within 60 days. The following fields may appear:

Effect:	Suspension
Effective:	Date the sanction period begins
Order Number:	Sanction order number
Violation:	Traffic law, ordinance, rule, or regulation that was violated
Closed:	Date the sanction was closed
Location:	City, town, or village where the violation or traffic infraction occurred
Ticket Number:	Ticket number that created the sanction

RESCINDED ORDERS

A rescinded order is a non-scofflaw or a scofflaw that went into effect, then was cancelled due to an error, the resolution of the underlying issue (i.e. paying a fine), or legal challenges. It is a sanction that otherwise would not have originally displayed. The following fields may appear:

Order Number:	Sanction order number
Rescinded:	Date the sanction was removed
Ticket Number:	Ticket number that created the sanction
