

You can change your address online at dmv.ny.gov.

New York State (NYS) law requires you to notify DMV within 10 days of any PERMANENT address change if you have a NYS driver license, learner permit or non-driver ID card, or a NYS registration for a vehicle, boat, or snowmobile. DO NOT report a temporary address change.

You can change your address as part of the document renewal process. Complete the new address fields on your paper reminder notice, or update your address on your MyDMV account. For information about how to change your address online, visit dmv.ny.gov/address-change.

You do not have to get a new license, permit, non-driver ID card, or registration document, but you have the option to get a new document.

If you want a new document:

1. Complete Part 1 and Part 2 on page 2 of this form.
2. Sign your name in the "Certification" section.
3. Write a check or money order made payable to "Commissioner of Motor Vehicles" for the total fee.
4. Mail the completed form and payment to: NYS DMV License Production Bureau
PO Box 2895
Albany, NY 12220-0895
5. Keep your current document(s) until you receive your new document(s) in the mail in 4 to 6 weeks. If you request a new enhanced or REAL ID license, permit, or ID card, your residence address will be shown on your document and your document will be mailed to your mailing address. If you request a standard license, permit, or ID card, your mailing address will be shown on your document.

If you DO NOT want a new document:

1. Complete Part 1 but do not complete Part 2. DMV will update your DMV record(s) at no cost.
2. Update your address on your NYS license, permit, or non-driver ID card, and on your NYS registration document. To update your address, write your new address directly on the back of the document with permanent ink in the "Enter Address Change" box.

If you change your address and have not paid the fines for traffic violations in New York City, you must call the Traffic Violations Bureau at (718) 488-5710. Be prepared to provide your new address and pay your fines. Visit dmv.ny.gov/tvboffice.htm for more information.

If you do not complete the New York State Voter Registration Application, you will be considered to have declined to register to vote. If you decline to register to vote, the fact that you have declined to register will remain confidential and will be used only for voter registration purposes. If you do register to vote, the office at which you submit a voter registration application will remain confidential and will only be used for voter registration purposes. If you believe that someone has interfered with your right to register or decline to register to vote, your right to privacy in deciding whether to register or in applying to register to vote, or your right to choose your own political party or other political preference, you may file a complaint with the New York State Board of Elections, 40 North Pearl Street, Albany, NY 12207-2729 (phone: 1-800-469-6872).

Your completed application will be sent to the Board of Elections and you will be notified by your County Board of Elections when your application has been processed. If you have any questions about filling out the voter registration application or registering to vote, you should call your County Board of Elections or call 1-800-FOR-VOTE (TDD/TTY enter 711) (only for voter registration questions). If you live in New York City, you should call 1-866-VOTE-NYC. You may also find answers or tools at the New York State Board of Elections website www.elections.ny.gov
